

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE POLICY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Employee acknowledgement and compliance statement

Purpose and Scope

Dare To Care Home Care is committed to maintaining a safe, respectful, and professional work environment for employees, clients, customers, visitors, and any other individuals who may be present at a work site. Workplace violence, threats, harassment, intimidation, and other disruptive or threatening conduct are not tolerated.

Policy Definition

Workplace violence is any act or threat of physical violence, harassment, intimidation, or other threatening behavior that occurs at a work site. Workplace violence may include verbal abuse, physical assault, threats, coercion, stalking, intimidation, or homicide. It is a serious safety concern and may involve employees, clients, customers, visitors, or individuals with a personal relationship to an employee.

Types of Workplace Violence

Type	Description
Type 1 - Criminal Intent	The individual has no legitimate relationship to the workplace. Violence may occur during crimes such as robbery, trespassing, or other unlawful activity.
Type 2 - Customer/Client	The individual has a legitimate relationship with the workplace and becomes violent while receiving services or interacting with staff.
Type 3 - Worker-on-Worker	A current or former employee threatens, harasses, intimidates, or attacks another employee.
Type 4 - Personal Relationship	The individual has a personal relationship with an employee and brings threatening or violent behavior into the workplace.

Workplace Violence Risk Awareness

Workplace violence remains a recognized safety concern across many industries. In 2023, 740 workplace fatalities were caused by violent acts, including 458 homicides. Healthcare, retail, and transportation workers may face higher exposure due to direct public contact, work performed in private homes or community settings, and variable work environments.

Prevention and Reporting Expectations

- Employees are expected to follow the agency's zero-tolerance policy for all forms of workplace violence.
- Employees must report threats, harassment, intimidation, unsafe conduct, or violent incidents promptly to agency management.
- Employees should follow agency procedures for de-escalation, emergency response, and communication during safety concerns.
- Reports may be made without retaliation. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent reasonably possible while allowing the agency to investigate and respond appropriately.
- Employees should contact emergency services immediately when there is an immediate threat to safety.

Prohibited Conduct

- Any act or threat of workplace violence as defined by this policy.
- Possession, use, display, or threat of unauthorized weapons while working or representing the agency.
- Harassment, intimidation, coercion, retaliation, or misuse of authority.
- False or misleading reports made for the purpose of abusing the reporting process.

Employee Acknowledgement

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received, read, and understand the Workplace Violence Policy. I agree to comply with the policy, follow agency safety procedures, and promptly report workplace violence concerns or incidents. I understand that violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Name:

Date:

Signature:
